

Springtime often brings new furry critters and feathered friends to the neighborhood! What's the most responsible way to welcome them?

A: Feed the ducks and geese so they'll come back and visit all season.

B: Create a backyard habitat for wildlife with their favorite grasses and plants.